The Plaintiff, Jonathan Lee Riches (Plaintiff), is an inmate at FCI-Williamsburg. Plaintiff filed the nine (9) civil actions listed above in forma pauperis under 28 U.S.C. § 1915, and pursuant to 42 U.S.C. § 1983.¹ Plaintiff seeks monetary damages for alleged civil rights violations against a variety of Defendants. The Court addresses the claims set forth in each of the complaints below.

¹ Pursuant to the provisions of 28 U.S.C. §636(b)(1)(B), and Local Rule 73.02(B)(2)(d), D.S.C., the undersigned is authorized to review such complaints for relief and submit findings and recommendations to the District Court.

Pro Se and In Forma Pauperis Review

Under established local procedure in this judicial district, a careful review has been made of the above listed pro se complaints pursuant to the procedural provisions of 28 U.S.C. § 1915; 28 U.S.C. § 1915A; and the Prison Litigation Reform Act, Pub. L. No. 104-134, 110 Stat. 1321 (1996). This review has been conducted in light of the following precedents: Denton v. Hernandez, 504 U.S. 25 (1992); Neitzke v. Williams, 490 U.S. 319, 324-25 (1989); Haines v. Kerner, 404 U.S. 519 (1972); Nasim v. Warden, Md. House of Corr., 64 F.3d 951 (4th Cir. 1995) (en banc); Todd v. Baskerville, 712 F.2d 70 (4th Cir. 1983).

The complaints herein have been filed pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1915, which permits an indigent litigant to commence an action in federal court without prepaying the administrative costs of proceeding with the lawsuit. To protect against possible abuses of this privilege, the statute allows a district court to dismiss a case upon a finding that the action “fails to state a claim on which relief may be granted” or is “frivolous or malicious.” § 1915(e)(2)(B)(i), (ii). A finding of frivolity can be made where the complaint “lacks an arguable basis either in law or in fact.” Denton v. Hernandez, 504 U.S. at 31. Hence, under § 1915(e)(2)(B), a claim based on a meritless legal theory may be dismissed sua sponte. Neitzke v. Williams, 490 U.S. 319 (1989); Allison v. Kyle, 66 F.3d 71 (5th Cir. 1995).

This Court is required to liberally construe pro se documents, Estelle v. Gamble, 429 U.S. 97 (1976), holding them to a less stringent standard than those drafted by attorneys, Hughes v. Rowe, 449 U.S. 5, 9 (1980) (per curiam). Even under this less stringent standard, however, Plaintiff’s pro se complaints are subject to summary dismissal. The mandated liberal construction afforded to pro se pleadings means that if the court can reasonably read the pleadings to state a valid claim on which the plaintiff could prevail, it should do so, but a district court may not rewrite a petition to include claims that were never presented, Barnett v. Hargett, 174 F.3d 1128, 1133 (10th Cir. 1999), or construct the plaintiff's legal arguments for him, Small v. Endicott, 998 F.2d 411, 417-18 (7th Cir. 1993), or "conjure up questions never squarely presented" to the court, Beaudett v. City of Hampton, 775 F.2d 1274, 1278 (4th Cir. 1985). The requirement of liberal construction does not mean that the court can ignore a clear failure in the pleading to allege facts which set forth a claim currently cognizable in a federal district court. Weller v. Dep't of Soc. Servs., 901 F.2d 387, (4th Cir. 1990).

Discussion

1. Riches v. Dario Franchitti and Ashley Judd, C/A No. 6:08-0166-MBS-WMC.

Plaintiff, who moves under 42 U.S.C. 1983, alleges that:

Defendants are causing anarchy [sic] on my life, leaving me in a cell 24 hours a day in solitary. I can't see out my window, my floor is dirty. I can't watch formula one racing. I can't watch Judd's movies. I get handcuffed too tight, this hurts my wrists. I seek $17 million.

As an initial matter, the Defendants are a professional race car driver (Franchitti) and actress (Judd). In order to state a cause of action under 42 U.S.C. § 1983, a plaintiff must allege that: (1) the defendant(s) deprived him of a federal right, and (2) did so under color of state law. Gomez v. Toledo, 446 U.S. 635, 640 (1980). See also 42 U.S.C. § 1983. As the Defendants are private citizens, they do not act "under color of state law," and are not amenable to suit under § 1983. Accordingly, Plaintiff has failed to state a cognizable claim for relief under § 1983. Moreover, as Plaintiff's allegations are clearly baseless and irrational, they must be dismissed as frivolous under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1915A, 1915(e)(2).

2. Riches v. Benjamin Bratt, C/A No. 6:08-0167-MBS-WMC.

Plaintiff, who seeks eighty-eight (88) million dollars in compensation, claims, "I'm freezing in solitary. I get used dirty sheets, a cold shower, a cracked mirror. Defendant is harassing and neglecting and aiding my abuse. This is torture in solitary."

The Defendant in this action is a television and film actor. As a private citizen, the Defendant does not act under color of state law, an essential element of a § 1983 claim. Gomez v. Toledo, 446 U.S. 635, 640 (1980). See also 42 U.S.C. § 1983. Therefore, Defendant Bratt is not amenable to suit under § 1983, and Plaintiff has failed to state a cognizable claim for relief under that statute. Moreover, as Plaintiff's allegations are clearly baseless and largely irrational, they must be dismissed as frivolous under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1915A, 1915(e)(2).

3. Riches v. Vinod Khosla, d/b/a Khosla Ventures, C/A No. 6:08-0168-MBS-WMC.

Plaintiff indicates that, "Khosla's fund invests in prison buildings. I'm suffering from no medical treatment. This is a conspiracy. Bhutto was killed on my birthday. I can't see outside, this is unconstitutional. I seek $43 million."

The Defendant in this action is an Indian-American venture capitalist. As a private citizen, Defendant Khosla does not act under "color of state law," and is not amenable to suit under § 1983. See Gomez v. Toledo, 446 U.S. 635, 640 (1980). As Plaintiff has failed to state a cognizable claim under § 1983, this action must be dismissed under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1915A, 1915(e)(2).

4. Riches v. British Airways and Willie Walsh, d/b/a British Airways CEO, C/A No. 6:08-0169-MBS-WMC.

In this complaint, Plaintiff states, "I seek a plane ticket out of America. This country is violating my 6th amendment rights under Booker and FanFan. I get no due process in court, defendants planes are harassing me in the sky. I'm in danger. I seek $73 million."

The Defendants in this action are a private airline company and its Chief Executive Officer. As a private business and private citizen the Defendants (British Airways and Walsh), do not act under "color of state law," and are not amenable to suit under § 1983. See Gomez

v. Toledo, 446 U.S. 635, 640 (1980). As Plaintiff has failed to state a cognizable claim under § 1983, this action must be dismissed under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1915A, 1915(e)(2).

5. Riches v. Kate Hafner, d/b/a The Epic Saga of the Well Author.

Plaintiff writes, “My incarceration is illegal. I can’t have defendant’s book in prison, this puts my mind in danger. I can’t call my family. I have not spoken with my family since October, this is a civil rights violation. I seek a phone call and $5 million.”

The complaint in this case makes no factual allegations against the Defendant, and Plaintiff fails to indicate any conduct by Defendant Hafner that would implicate a right secured by the Constitution or laws of the United States. Although the Court must liberally construe the pro se complaint, Plaintiff must do more than make mere conclusory statements to state a claim. Brown v. Zavaras, 63 F.3d 967 (10th Cir. 1995); Adams v. Rice, 40 F.3d 72 (4th Cir.1994)(affirming district court’s dismissal of plaintiff’s suit as frivolous where allegation was conclusory and nonsensical on its face); White v. White, 886 F.2d 721, 723 (4th Cir. 1989)(where plaintiff’s complaint “failed to contain any factual allegations tending to support his bare assertion”). This Court is not required to develop tangential claims from scant assertions in the complaint. See Beaudett v. City of Hampton, 775 F.2d 1274 (4th Cir. 1985). In addition, the complaint indicates the Defendant in this action is an author. As a private citizen, Defendant Hafner does not act under “color of state law,” and is not amenable to suit under § 1983. See Gomez v. Toledo, 446 U.S. 635, 640 (1980). As Plaintiff has failed to state a cognizable claim under § 1983, this action must be dismissed under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1915A, 1915(e)(2).

6. Riches v. Mack's Famous Boardwalk Pizza, C/A No. 6:08-0171-MBS-WMC.

In this action, Plaintiff states, "I got food poisoning from Defendants in 2001, now FCI Williamsburg does not serve pizza. This is a civil rights violation. I'm abused, malnourished [sic], very skinny. I need food. I seek $10 million and a proper diet to survive."

As in the above cases, the Defendant in this action (a private business) is not a "state actor" amenable to suit under § 1983. As Plaintiff has failed to state a cognizable claim under § 1983, and his allegations are clearly baseless, they must be dismissed as frivolous under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1915A, 1915(e)(2).

7. Riches v. Coldwell Banker, C/A No. 6:08-0172-MBS-WMC.

In the instant complaint, Plaintiff claims, "My civil rights are violated. Bankers federal income tax is going to FCI Williamsburg. I'm not being fed properly. I get 1 pair a boxers a week, this is unconstitutional. I'm dirty. I seek $12 million."

As a private real estate company, Defendant Coldwell Banker, does not act under "color of state law," and is not amenable to suit under 42 U.S.C. § 1983. As Plaintiff has failed to state a cognizable claim under § 1983, and his allegations are clearly baseless, they must be dismissed as frivolous under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1915A, 1915(e)(2).

8. Riches v. Aptera Motors and Steve Fambro, C/A No. 6:08-0173-MBS-WMC.

Plaintiff, who seeks seven (7) million dollars, states, "My cell is freezing cold. FCI Williamsburg and Aptera Motors wont give me a long sleeve shirt to stay warm. I get no fire wood or barrel of fire or matches. I'm freezing."

The Defendants in this case are a private company which designs and manufactures fuel efficient vehicles (Aptera Motors) and its founder (Steve Fambro). As a private company and private citizen, the Defendants are not "state actors" amenable to suit under § 1983. As Plaintiff has failed to state a cognizable claim under § 1983, and his allegations are clearly baseless, the complaint must be dismissed as frivolous under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1915A, 1915(e)(2).

9. Riches v. Meredith Stebbins, d/b/a Wired Magazine Staff, C/A No. 6:08-0174-MBS-WMC.

In this § 1983 action, Plaintiff claims, “I spent Christmas in solitary, this is unconstitutional abuse. I seek a restraining order against Stebbins. She is helping the Government torture me. I have no hot water, this is a civil rights violation. I seek 99 million.”

As stated in the complaint’s caption, the Defendant is a private citizen, employed by Wired Magazine. As a private citizen, Defendant Stebbins, does not act under “color of state law,” and is not amenable to suit under 42 U.S.C. § 1983. Therefore, Plaintiff has failed to state a cognizable claim under § 1983, and his allegations, which are clearly baseless, must be dismissed as frivolous under 28 U.S.C. §§ 1915A, 1915(e)(2).

Plaintiff has begun to build up an extensive history of cases filed in this Court in a relatively short time.² The first cases were filed and summarily dismissed in early 2006. See Riches v. Bush, Civil Action No. 6:06-cv-00194-MBS; Riches v. Bureau of Prisons, Civil Action No. 4:06-cv-00442-MBS. Since September 2007, Plaintiff has filed at least one hundred and fifteen (115) separate cases in this Court. The docket reflects that none of these cases were filed in proper form, and that Plaintiff has not responded to at least eight (8) proper-form orders that have been issued to date by this Court.³ Thus, it appears that Plaintiff may be filing cases for the sole purpose of creating additional work for this and other federal courts.⁴ Each of Plaintiff's pro se complaints, regardless of facial merit, currently must be formally opened and docketed by Clerk's staff. Following docketing, each case must undergo the Court's procedural initial review process to determine whether or not it should be summarily dismissed, amended, or served on the opposing parties. See 28 U.S.C. §636(b)(1)(B); D.S.C. Civ. R. 73.02.

² Since December, 2007, Plaintiff has filed one hundred and seven (107) cases, including the present action, with this Court. See Civil Actions No. 4:07-cv-4094-MBS-WMC thru 4:07-cv-4098-MBS-WMC; 6:07-cv-4135-MBS-WMC thru 6:07-cv-4139-MBS-WMC; 6:07-cv-4141-MBS-WMC thru 6:07-cv-4145-MBS-WMC; 6:08-cv-0098-MBS-WMC thru 6:08-cv-0102-MBS-WMC; 6:08-cv-0120-MBS-WMC thru 6:08-cv-0125-MBS-WMC; 6:08-cv-0166-MBS-WMC thru 6:08-cv-0174-MBS-WMC; 6:08-cv-0230-MBS-WMC; 6:08-cv-0232-MBS-WMC thru 6:08-cv-0239-MBS-WMC; 6:08-cv-0253-MBS-WMC thru 6:08-cv-0262-MBS-WMC; 6:08-cv-0294-MBS-WMC thru 6:08-cv-0301-MBS-WMC; 6:08-cv-0332-MBS-WMC thru 6:08-cv-0349-MBS-WMC; 6:08-cv-0393-MBS-WMC thru 6:08-cv-0396-MBS-WMC; 6:08-cv-0412-MBS-WMC thru 6:08-cv-0419-MBS-WMC; 6:08-cv-0474-MBS-WMC thru 6:08-cv-0481-MBS-WMC; 6:08-cv-0507-MBS-WMC thru 6:08-cv-0513-MBS-WMC.

This Court has the authority to order a pre-filing injunction or other appropriate sanction against the Plaintiff. Graham v. Riddle, 554 F.2d 133, 135 (4th Cir. 1977). See also Safir v. United States Lines, Inc., 792 F.2d 19, 23-25 (2nd Cir. 1986)(five factors for court to consider before imposing order of pre-filing review); Flint v. Haynes, 651 F.2d 970, 974 (4th Cir. 1981) ("joined other courts in approving pre-filing review of complaints brought by prisoners with a history of litigiousness"). The sanctions which the Court may consider include, but are not limited to: denial of proceeding without prepayment of the filing fee; the imposition of a filing injunction order placing restrictions on the types of cases Plaintiff may file and the manner in which they must be submitted; monetary sanctions that will have to be satisfied before any further filings may be made; dismissal of any action; entry of an order of contempt of court; and any and all other forms of sanctions available to the Court under Rule 11 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure. Overly litigious, malicious, and/or vexatious individuals place a burden on the judicial system and divert judicial resources from other pending litigation, so a court must “balance between insuring access to the courts and controlling already overburdened dockets.” In Re Burnley, 988 F.2d 1, 4 (4th Cir. 1992).

³ See, e.g., Riches v. Simpson, Civil Action No. 4:07-cv-03163-MBS; Riches v. Simpson, Civil Action No. 4:07-cv-03177-MBS; Riches v. Simpson, Civil Action No. 4:07-cv-03191-MBS; Riches v. Simpson, Civil Action No. 4:07-cv-03238-MBS; Riches v. Joel, Civil Action No. 4:07-cv-03313-MBS; Riches v. Thomas, Civil Action No. 4:07-cv-03327-MBS; Riches v. Stewart, Civil Action No. 4:07-cv-03425-MBS; Riches v. Simpson, Civil Action No. 4:07-cv-03456-MBS-WMC.

⁴ According to the internet website "Justia.com," Plaintiff is also filing multiple similar cases in several other federal courts around the country. Since December 1, 2007, Plaintiff has filed over 160 cases across the country. This is malicious and vexatious behavior on Plaintiff's part. See <http://dockets.justia.com>.

Accordingly, Plaintiff is hereby placed on notice that sanctions may be imposed which will place restrictions on Plaintiff’s ability to file future cases in this Court if he:

- (1) Continues to submit cases which he fails to pursue and prosecute; and/or
 - (2) Continues to file cases which fail to state a claim on which relief may be granted or are deemed frivolous or malicious.
- See § 1915(e)(2)(B)(i), (ii).

Recommendation

Accordingly, it is recommended that the District Court dismiss the complaint in each of the above-captioned cases without prejudice and without issuance of service of process. See Denton v. Hernandez, 504 U.S. at 31; Neitzke v. Williams, 490 U.S. at 324-25; Todd v. Baskerville 712 F.2d at 74. Plaintiff's attention is directed to the important notice on the next page.

Notice of Right to File Objections to Report and Recommendation

The parties are advised that they may file specific written objections to this Report and Recommendation with the District Court Judge. Objections must specifically identify the portions of the Report and Recommendation to which objections are made and the basis for such objections. In the absence of a timely filed objection, a district court need not conduct a de novo review, but instead must “only satisfy itself that there is no clear error on the face of the record in order to accept the recommendation.” Diamond v. Colonial Life & Acc. Ins. Co., 416 F.3d 310 (4th Cir. 2005).

Specific written objections must be filed within ten (10) days of the date of service of this Report and Recommendation. 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1); Fed. R. Civ. P. 72(b). The time calculation of this ten-day period excludes weekends and holidays and provides for an additional three (3) days for filing by mail. Fed. R. Civ. P. 6(a) & (e). Filing by mail pursuant to Fed. R. Civ. P. 5 may be accomplished by mailing objections to:

Larry W. Propes, Clerk
United States District Court
P. O. Box 10768
Greenville, South Carolina 29603

Failure to timely file specific written objections to this Report and Recommendation will result in waiver of the right to appeal from a judgment of the District Court based upon such Recommendation. 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1); Thomas v. Arn, 474 U.S. 140 (1985); United States v. Schronce, 727 F.2d 91 (4th Cir. 1984); Wright v. Collins, 766 F.2d 841 (4th Cir. 1985).
